Written & Directed by Nichole Fernandez

7 mins. Comedy Drama

Production Dates: September 12-13, 2014

CHARACTER BIOS:

JANELLE (35+)

In Janelle's own mind, there is nothing wrong with her. But let's face it; she's kind of at the entrance to the crazy house. Her life has consisted of constant battles with temptations to which she usually indulged in. Drug and alcohol abuse have factored into the reason why she's been living in a hospital for the past couple months. There's a part of her that craves breaking the rules and speaking without a filter but at the end of the day, she's just a misunderstood woman with a warm heart.

BRI (13-15)

Bri is a young girl who becomes Janelle's new hospital roommate. She's at the cusp of learning who she is and making grown up decisions for the first time in her life. Innocence resonates more with who she is, but she masks it with the illusion of societal conformity. Although she hates the fact that she has to spend one night in a hospital, she hates even more that she got coupled with a crazy lady.

SYNOPSIS:

Set in a cozy-than-most hospital room, Janelle has spent all her time in the last couple months cooped up with no escape. An unlikely pairing of a restless, former junkie and a fortunate, private-schooled girl named Bri, reveal that the two share more than just a room and teach each other a life lesson that couldn't be taught outside hospital walls.
